

STAFF CODE OF CONDUCT

Salesian College Sunbury is an inclusive Catholic Faith Community in the spirit of St John Bosco.

- We are welcoming COMMUNITY that fosters an atmosphere of joy and optimism.
- We strive for engagement in LEARNING for which we are collectively responsible.
- We promote the pursuit of EXCELLENCE in all aspects of life.
- We are inspired by our FAITH to serve others and develop as resilient, thoughtful and caring citizens of the world.

Central to these values is an unequivocal commitment to fostering the dignity, self-esteem and integrity of children and young people and providing them with a safe, supportive and enriching environment to develop spiritually, physically, intellectually, emotionally and socially.

This Staff Code of Conduct is designed to ensure that all employees, volunteers, contractors, and religious personnel of Salesian College Sunbury (the College) and St Mary's College for the Deaf, are clear about expected personal and professional behaviour and conduct.

OVERVIEW

This Code of Conduct (the Code) embodies our collective commitment to fostering a positive and supportive environment that prioritises the health, safety and wellbeing of everyone, inspired by our Catholic faith.

The Code establishes clear expectations for behaviour and guides our actions, including each person's responsibility to uphold the teachings of the Catholic Church, ensuring responsible and ethical conduct while also modelling these optimal actions for students and all members of the College community.

The Code operates in conjunction with individual employment contracts and all College policies and procedures. Together, these create a comprehensive structure that guides our actions and fosters a positive Catholic work environment.

By accepting employment with the College, we each acknowledge and accept that in the performance of our duties and responsibilities we act consistently with the statement of mission, and we will comply with directions on matters relating to the doctrines and teachings of the Church.

SCOPE

The Code applies to all people who carry out work in any capacity for the College, and applies to College Board Directors, Board Committee Members, employees, volunteers, consultants and contractors ('staff').

This includes, but is not limited to, the following circumstances:

- while we are supervising students
- when we are communicating or interacting with students, staff, the school community or the public, including communications via social media or other technologies
- when we are attending activities away from the workplace, or out of ordinary hours, and which are supported, sufficiently connected or approved by the College, including professional learning, training courses, social functions, pilgrimages and other events.
- when we are representing the College or attending an event on behalf of the College.

The Code may apply to our conduct away from the workplace and outside work hours. It may apply to conduct that occurs in Australia, overseas and during any form of communication in person, online, via telephone or any other means.

RESPONSIBILITIES

1. You are responsible for reading and understanding the Code.
2. You are responsible for your own actions and behaviours.
3. You are responsible for acting if you see behaviours that you don't think align with the Code and raising concerns with your relevant leader, Human Resources, or a member of the Executive Team or by using the appropriate whistleblower policy.
4. If you have a role as a leader or manager, you are responsible for:
 - role-modelling appropriate behaviour
 - always ensuring that your staff act and behave in line with College expectations.
 - proactively dealing with any breaches of the Code which are raised with you as per the relevant procedures outlined in this policy.
5. The Principal must ensure that the school community has access to the Code and understands it as it applies to them, and that appropriate action is taken if there is a suspected breach of the Code.

COMMUNITY | LEARNING | EXCELLENCE | FAITH

Here at Salesian College Sunbury, we are committed to the teaching practices of St John Bosco (Don Bosco), the founder of the Salesians. An essential characteristic of Don Bosco's approach was his interest in the young person as a person, and in his or her complete formation as a human being and Christian.

By creating a friendly school environment, educators in the Salesian tradition offer their students the time, opportunity and guidance to know themselves better, to understand the purpose for their existence, to help them develop their God-given talents and to prepare them to take their rightful place within their families, the Church and society.
